

DEPUTY INSPECTOR GENERAL, N. RAVI TAKES OVER AS COMMANDER, INDIAN COAST GUARD

Deputy Inspector General N Ravi, a distinguished alumnus of Madras Institute of Technology (MIT), has assumed duties as new State Commander of Indian Coast Guard in Kerala and Mahe. He had taken over the charge on 21 July 2021.

The Flag Officer completed his B.Tech in Aeronautical Engineering in the Department of Aerospace Engineering, MIT in the year 1994 and then he joined the Indian Coast Guard service on 07 Jan 1995.

In his illustrious career, the Flag Officer had the distinction of holding important Command and Staff appointments, both afloat and ashore. In his previous appointment, he has commanded Interceptor Boat C-136, Fast Patrol Vessel (FPV) Sarojini Naidu, Offshore Patrol Vessel (OPV) ICGS Varuna which was part of Training Squadron (TS-1), Advanced Offshore Patrol Vessel (AOPV) ICGS Vishwast. His important appointments include Joint Director Ships Acquisition, Chief of Staff at Andaman and Nicobar Command and Principal Director (Logistics) at Coast Guard Headquarters, Delhi prior to this appointment.

The Flag Officer is a proud recipient of the CINCAN commendation and Director General Indian Coast Guard commendation for devotion to duty.