

Attention : Exchange / Internship Students

Do'S and Dont's to be adhered to while in Anna University

- You will have to strictly follow the Rules / Regulations of Anna University.
- Internet access will be provided to your laptop to limited websites due to security reasons.
- Travel and overseas sickness insurance is to be obtained in the home country prior to arrival.
- The concerned department will extend the facilities for research work during the internship.
- The candidate must hold a student visa.
- You must bring one passport-size photograph when you visit the office of the Centre for International Relations to register as a foreigner.
- Your residential permit must be for a stipulated period of time. Extension of your stay will not be encouraged at any point of time.
- There is no financial commitment from Anna University for what so ever be the case.
- The annual tuition fee for UG programs are 3750 USD for two semesters, except for the branches of Computer Science, Information Technology, and Electronics & Communication Engineering.
- The annual tuition fee for branches of Computer Science, Information Technology, and Electronics & Communication Engineering are 7500 USD for two semesters
- The annual tuition fee for PG programs is 2000 USD for two semesters.
- Discipline is to be maintained on the campus very strictly
- Smoking and consumption of alcoholic drinks / narcotics are strictly prohibited
- Hostel facilities are available on the campus.
- On basis of request, temporary accommodation can be arranged in the University Guest House on payment.